Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Bill:

We very much appreciate the effort of your office in preparing the report on "Current Problems and Future Prospects of the Romanian Economy." Romania's recent decision to introduce economic reforms makes this work timely indeed. I am sure that the comprehensive coverage and the wealth of statistical detail will be of value to the NATO Committee of Economic Advisors during its forthcoming meeting.

I am enclosing a copy of the finished piece being sent to ECONAD. You will note that it includes introductory and concluding sections, as well as other additions on our part, which we discussed along the way with [Redacted]
